WEARING HOOPS IN JERUSALEM. A lady correspondent of the Boston Trav eller, writing from Jerusalem, says: "While passing down the main street I witnessed a very amusing incident, occasioned by the appearance of a indy in hoops. She was overtaken by a group of Turkish soldiers and the bulky form of her dress caused them mystery; accordingly, one of them practised the following ruse: He quickened his pace to reach the lady's side, and when about to pass her hepartly fell to the ground. While pass her hepartly fell to the ground. While in the act of falling he clutched her dress, as the only means within his reach of saving N. C. JOHNSON, Professor of Penmanship. himself from the fall; but his true object was very evident, for I saw him go to his companions and tell them of the wonderful machinery by which the lady was surrounded; and although it is considered in the East absolutely sinful for a man to bestow even a mometary glance on a woman, yet withdraw their gaze from this Occidental novelty they could not; nor did she escape them by turn ing off to another street.

They stopped at the lower end of the steep alley into which she had turned, and watched her until the gloom of a dark and distant archway hid her from view. I dare say, however, should one of the sheeted women of the East appear in the streets of one of our cities, the merriment and wonder created by her ghostly appearance would be equally as great as that with which Occidental fashions are regarded in this country .-This lady was visited by a score of Turkish ladies, who, after handling this curious portion of her wardrobe with great amazement, begged to be pointed out either the beauty or the utility of a hooped skirt. The Frank lady brought all her eloquence to bear upon the advantages of her favorits article of dressbut they exclaimed, "Allah save us from this great umbrella which you Frank ladies consider so indispensable to your beauty and comfort, and Allah grant, also, that we may be spared the pain of the tightly-fitting clothes with which you torture yourselves!" They then commanded the slaves to make preparations for prayer, and the rugs having been spread, their faces veiled, they immediately commenced their intricate process of prayer no doubt thanking high heaven that they were exempt from these strange fashions.

THANKSGIVING.

The origin of appointing a day of thanks-giving is thus given: When New England was first planted, the settlers met with many difficulties and hardships, as is necessarily establish themselves in a wilderness country. Being piously disposed they sought relief from Heaven by laying their wants and dis-tresses before the Lord in frequent set days of fasting and prayer. Constant meditation and discourse on the subject of their difficulties kept their minds gloomy and discontented, and, like the Children of Israel, there were many disposed to return to the land which persecution had determined them to abandon. At length, when it was proposed in the Assembly to proclaim another fast, a farmer of plain sense rose and remarked that the inconveniences they suffered, and concerning which they had so often wearied Heaven with their complaints, were not so great as might have been expected, and were diminishing every day as the colony strengthened; that the earth began to reward their labors and to furnish liberally for their sustenance; that the seas and rivers were full of fish; the part to retain it in the Commonwealth. air sweet, the climate wholesome; above all, they were in the full enjoyment of liberty. FRENCH PORCELAIN DINNER SETTS. that reflecting and conversing on these subects would be more comfortable, as tending to make them more contented with their situation; and that it would be more becoming if, instead of a fast, they would proclaim a thanksgiving! His advice was taken, and from that day to this they have in every year observed circumstances of public happiness sufficient to furnish employment for a thanks-

SOUTHERN PROTECTION INSURANCE COMPANY, ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA CAPITAL OVER 350,000 DOLLARS, AND CONSTANTLY INCREASING The Charter of this Company offers more tayora ble advantages to the farmer and others, than any Company chartered in the State, by insuring with or without a premium note. If the applicant prefer, he can pay the full amount of the premium in cash, or by effecting a cash insurance for two years, the insured saves one eighth of the amount he would otherwise have to pay; or by becoming a member, and giving a small premium note, the in sured saves nearly one half of the amount charged by Stock Companies, when insuring from year to year. This is the advantage resulting from the combination of the CASH AND MUTUAL PRINCIPLE. This Company commenced issuing Policies against loss or damage by fire, on the 13th day of March, 1854, since which time over reven thousand seven hundred persons have insured and become members of the Company, and over seventy thou-sand dollars have been paid for losses. Having increased our business during the past year, we tend grateful for the liberal patronage bestowed upon the Company thus far, and for its flattering pros-pects of future usefulness. The Directors hope and believe, that, by prudence, caution, and a rigid Atlantic-Broadway, New York; and Chestnut system of economy, they will establish for the not surpassed by any Company in the L.
